Mr. Robert Robertson.
Assistant Curator
New York -

Dear Sir -

I have to thank you for your letter of September 10th, which has just arrived by San Francisco boat, regarding my Washington medal.

Will you pardon me for so promptly troubling you again, but do you know if the medal is rare enough to have any value among collectors?

And to whom should I write?
I fancy it must have some little value - it is rather old, as American history goes —

I feel that I am rather imposing on you,
in asking further questions - please pardon me -

Again thanking you most sincerely —

(Miss) Elizabeth F. Brinkley

Dear Madam:

The Washington Funeralmedal has a market value of circa $5.00. Of course much depends on its state of preservation.

I would refer you to Mr. Henry Chapman, 333 South 16th Street, Philadelphia, Pa., as a dealer in coins and medals, in case you should wish to dispose of the medal. He is the mostly likely person to be interested in it.

Yours very truly,

Asst. Curator.
